

JONATHAN RYAN GUEST ORGANIST

Acclaimed by audiences and critics alike for his strong communicative skills in numerous styles, depth of musicianship, and passion, Jonathan Ryan is hailed as one of the premiere young concert organists of our time. His command of an exceptionally large breadth of repertoire, spanning from the Renaissance to numerous solo and collaborative premieres, coupled with striking virtuosity enables the bold, imaginative programming and exceptional use of each organ's unique capability for which he is noted.

Mr. Ryan has the rare distinction of holding six First Prize awards from major international and national organ competitions. He most notably entered the international spotlight when awarded First Prize in the 2009 Jordan II International Organ Competition, one of the most substantial First Prize awards of any organ competition at the time. He was additionally awarded the only auxiliary prize at the Jordan Competition, the LeTourneau Concerto Prize, given for the best performance of a newly commissioned work for organ and percussion ensemble. Additional First Prize awards include the 2006 Arthur Poister National Organ Competition, the 2006 John Rodland Scholarship Competition, the 2004 Albert Schweitzer National Organ Competition (Young Professional Division), and the 2003 Augustana Arts-Reuter National Organ Competition.

Jonathan Ryan's newest recording entitled Influences, recorded on the Stahlhuth-Jann organ at St. Martin's Church, Dudelange Luxembourg, appeared in December 2015 on the independent boutique label, Acis. It received the exceptional honor of nomination consideration in the 2017 GRAMMY® awards. The recording features major works by Dupré and Willan, a premiere recording of Ad Wammes, and a commissioned piece by renowned English composer Philip Moore. His début solo organ recording, A Cathedral's Voice (Raven 941), was released in 2012 to immediate critical acclaim, including a five-star review in the London-based Choir & Organ. Lauded for its mastery, expressivity, sensitivity, and virtuosity, it includes music ranging from Byrd and Bach to Schumann and Eben to a commission by multi award-winning young American composer Zachary Wadsworth. Mr. Ryan's performances have also been featured on the nationally syndicated radio programs Pipedreams and With Heart and Voice.

As a recitalist, Mr. Ryan's solo engagements have taken him to numerous prominent venues and festivals throughout the United States and Europe. Recent performances in the UK have included St. Paul's Cathedral London, Ripon, Southwark, and Truro Cathedrals, and a celebrity recital at St. Michael & All Angels Church, Great Torrington. In Germany, he has performed at Leipzig's Nikolaikirche and at international organ festivals in Hamburg, Stuttgart, Lübeck, and Konstanz. Other European venues include the Cathédrale St-André in Bordeaux (France), and the international Spätsommer Festival in Zürich (Switzerland). In the United States, recent engagements include the Piccolo Spoleto Festival's prestigious Spotlight Series (Charleston SC), the inaugural organ concert series at the Cathedral of Christ the Light in Oakland CA, the Eccles Organ Festival (Salt Lake City UT), the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart in Houston TX, and recitals sponsored by the Chapters of the American Guild of Organists in Cleveland OH, Kansas City MO, Fairfield County CT, and Charlotte NC. He also performed recitals of J.S. Bach's monumental Clavier-Übung III in a tour on historically-based organs throughout the United States, including Stanford and Pacific Lutheran universities, St. Joseph Cathedral in Columbus OH, St. Philip Presbyterian Church in Houston TX, Pinnacle Presbyterian Church in Scottsdale AZ, Church of the Transfiguration in Dallas TX, Trinity Cathedral in Cleveland OH, and Christ Church Christiana Hundred in Wilmington DE.

Mr. Ryan is frequently invited to perform for his peers at conventions. His solo recitals at conventions include the 2014 National Convention of the American Guild of Organists in Boston MA, three national conventions of the Organ Historical Society, and the opening recital of the 2012 Symposium on Charles Tournemire in Ft. Lauderdale/Miami FL.

Born into a musical family in Charlotte, NC, Ryan first started playing the organ at age eight. He earned a Bachelor of Music degree with academic honors from the Cleveland Institute of Music where he studied organ, improvisation, and church music with Todd Wilson. During his undergraduate studies, he was awarded the Henry Fusner Prize for outstanding achievement in the Cleveland Institute of Music's organ department, and also assisted Todd Wilson at The Church of the Covenant as Student Intern in Music. As a student of David Higgs, Ryan received a Master of Music degree from the Eastman School of Music where he also studied improvisation with William Porter and conducting with William Weinert. Additionally, he holds the highest-ranking professional certification from the American Guild of Organists, the revered Fellow certificate, as well as the Choirmaster certificate for which he received the Choirmaster Prize.

Ryan serves as Director of Music & Organist at St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church in Dallas TX where his passions for conducting, performing and teaching combine with his love of sacred music at the country's second largest Episcopal church. He most recently served as Associate Director of Music within the music program of nine choirs at Christ Church (Episcopal) in Greenwich CT. Ryan has previously held director, conducting and organist positions at St. John Cantius Church in Chicago IL and St. Anne Church in Rochester NY where he was additionally Artistic Director of the Music at St. Anne concert series, and University Organist at the University of Rochester. During his two seasons as Visiting Artist at St. James Cathedral in Chicago IL, his solo organ accompaniment transcription of the Brahms Ein Deutsches Requiem, Op. 45, performed live in concert with the St. James Cathedral Choir (Bruce Barber, conductor), was showcased on the Friday night "Music in Chicago" program of Chicago's Classical Music Station, WFMT.

For additional information, including upcoming performances and how to purchase recordings, please visit: www.jonathan-ryan.com. Mr. Ryan is represented by Karen McFarlane Artists, Inc.

TONIGHT'S SOLOISTS

Trinity Del Regno

Native to Rowlett, Texas, Trinity Del Regno is a performer, composer, and artist. The mezzo-soprano will graduate from the University of North Texas in December of 2023, with their Bachelors of Music in vocal performance. They are studying with countertenor Dr. Daniel Bubeck, as well as having coached with Kathleen Kelly (Baylor) and Sandra Moon (LSU). After graduation, they plan to pursue higher education in performance, as well as a career in opera, composition, and professional choirs. Recent solo performances include Zita in Gianni Schicchi and The Abbess in Suor Angelica with Varna International Music Academy, and mezzo soloist in Kuhnau's Magnificat. As an ensemble musician, Trinity is a member of UNT's A Cappella Choir, as well as the baroque ensemble Vox Aquilae. Upcoming opportunities include The Sorceress in Purcell's Dido and Aeneas, as well as a debut album in fall of 2023.

Brock Johnson

Dr. Brock Johnson has been a resident of Texas since 2011 where he has appeared with The Dallas Opera, The Dallas Symphony Chorus, The University of North Texas Opera Theater, Highland Park Chorale, The Texas Voices, and PFamily Arts. He completed his DMA at the University of North Texas where he sang the role of Silvio in Pagliacci. He was also chosen to sing the bass solos in the Czech Christmas Mass, Česká mše vánoční, at UNT and throughout Texas. Johnson is currently an Assistant Professor of Music at Texas A&M University Commerce where he teaches studio voice, vocal pedagogy, and vocal literature.

Dr. Johnson doesn't only limit his performing in the classical practice, but also branches out in other styles such as musical theatre, barbershop, jazz, and church music. Johnson is a certified Vocologist under the tutelage of Dr. Ingo Titze through the National Center of Voice and Speech in Salt Lake City, Utah.