Details: This is an annual group that studies and prays together while working through three rotating annual curriculums. The group opens each September and is limit to no more than 15 participants, with the expectation that only 8-10 will continue in the process of developing a daily contemplative prayer life. Members pray through the week and then come and witness to their experience each Sunday morning.

For 2020-2021 year we will be studying and praying through: Live Like Francis: Reflections on Franciscan Life in the World, by Jovian Weigel & Leonard Foley.

For 2021-2022 year we will be studying and praying the Common Lectionary—A Guide to Prayer for all who walk with God, by Rueben P Job, Norman Shawchuck, and J. S. Mogabgah.

For 2022-2023 year we will be studying Ignatian, and Wesleyan Spiritual Transformation and Prayer. The year will involve reading, discussing and praying through three books:

Reimagining the Ignatian EXAMEN, by Mark E. Thibodeaux, SJ

Moment by Moment: A retreat in Everyday Life (Ignatian Spiritual Exercises), by C A Smith SHCI, & E F Merz SJ

Come with Me: Daily Living with a New Monastic Rule of Life, Wendy J. Miller. (which we are finishing up now of 2019-2020 years.
