

NINI MARCHESE
Soprano 1 Chancel Choir

Nini Marchese is a classically trained soprano, with experience as a voice teacher for singers of all ages and interests. Since moving to the DFW in 2018, she has been teaching voice through Lewisville ISD, and her students all received superior scores at the Solo and Ensemble Contest this year (2020). In years prior she maintained a private voice studio in Houston, and directed a children's musical theatre troupe. Many of her students enjoy musical theatre, and she enjoys coaching them to always feel audition-ready and polished! Her students have landed leading roles in shows like Aladdin, The Lion King, Seussical, and Annie.

Ms. Marchese is also an active performer, in opera and concert. She has sung as a soloist with Bach Society Houston in the St. John Passion, Magnificat, and Handel's Brockes Passion. She also toured Germany with BSH in 2018, as part of the Leipzig Bach Festival.

More info about me is available on my website, ninimarchese.com.

If interested in a free trial lesson on Zoom, please contact me at marchese.nini@gmail.com.