

Shanae Kemp
Mezzo Soprano, Chancel Choir

As a native of Nassau, The Bahamas, Shanae Kemp was immersed in a rich musical culture that influenced her desire of performance. She received her undergraduate degree in Music Education from VanderCook College of Music in Chicago, Illinois. Shanae continued her studies receiving a masters degree in Opera Performance from The University of North Texas in Denton, Texas. Through experience, Shanae has developed her teaching skills in both classroom and private settings. She has worked with numerous students at many different levels and ages providing them with not only an educational experience, but also a fun way to learn music.

Lesson slots are available for voice, piano and guitar via Zoom. After the initial free lesson, lessons may continue for a fee. If desired, longer lesson times are an option as well.

You can reach me via email at skemp@vandercook.edu.