Details: The McKinney Public Library in partnership with Flourish Community-based Initiatives is engaged in a community-wide, year-long read-along experience using the literary work Where Do We Go from Here: Chaos or Community? by Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Faith In Action will participate in this community-wide initiative through a six-week book study on Where Do We Go from Here: Chaos or Community? by Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. King was a Baptist minister, scholar, and civil-rights activist in the 1950s and 60s. He served as president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. He played an important role in the creation and passage of anti-discrimination laws such as the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965. He won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964.

Where Do We Go from Here was Dr. King's last book, published in 1967 before he was assassinated in 1968. We hope that you can join us. Reading the book is encouraged but is not necessary for participation.
