Shipwrecked – Acts 27:1-44

Paul was in prison because some of the Jewish leaders were not happy with his missionary work. Paul was being sent to Rome so the Emperor of the Roman Empire could hear the case against him. However, the journey to Rome didn't go as planned.

After the ship sailed, they encountered delays and weren't able to travel as quickly as they hoped. The weather was getting bad. Paul was an experienced sailor, and he warned the ship's captain and crew that if they continued to travel there would be damage to the ship and some people would lose their lives.

The captain decided to sail on anyway. Pretty soon they encountered a fierce storm with really strong winds. After several days the ship had been so battered by the storm that the crew began to throw cargo overboard. They were trying to lighten the load on the ship so it wouldn't fall apart.

After a few more days, when the storm was still going strong, the crew gave up hope that any of them would live through the storm.

Paul told the crew and other passengers that an angel from God had visited him and told him that he would make it to Rome because God had work for him to do there. Paul encouraged the crew and passengers and told them to have courage and not give up! Paul said they would all be saved but they needed to park their ship on an island because the ship was not going to make it.

The ship fell apart but Paul and the entire crew and all the other passengers were able to swim to the island and be saved. Paul not only had courage himself, but he was able to help the rest of the people have courage, too.

Bible Passage: Acts 27:1-44

Wonder: After reading the story from the Bible or from the Celebrate Wonder Bible Storybook, wonder together. Ask: What would you have done if you were on the ship?

Do: Paul and the people on the boat prayed and ate to prepare for the shipwreck. What do you do to prepare when something hard is getting ready to happen?

Pray: Dear God, help us proclaim your love through the words we say. Amen.
