

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. (Galatians 5:22 )

Fruit of the Spirit – Galatians 5:22-23

Prepare to Wonder

Faith Word: SPIRIT

Today's Bible story is from one of the letters Paul wrote to the church at Galatia.

During his missionary travels, Paul helped establish the church at Galatia and became friends with the followers there. After helping the church get established, Paul left the community to start another.

While Paul was continuing his missionary journey, he heard that there were other Christian missionaries teaching the people that all Gentiles had to practice Jewish customs, primarily the custom of circumcision. Paul wrote to the believers in Galatia to tell them this wasn't true and to discourage them from listening to the missionaries encouraging them to do so.

Part of the letter to the Galatians encourages the believers to turn away from things that keep them from living a spiritual life. If they live a spiritual life the fruit of the spirit would grow in their lives. The "fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control." These feelings, actions, and values are still important goals for us now.

Spiritual Practice for Adults

Find a quiet place to sit. Place your feet on the ground and place your hands palms down on your knees. Take a deep breath in and let it go. This time as you breathe in, think, "Spirit, guide me." Exhale and think, "All my days." Repeat several times.
