Salt and Light – Matthew 5:13-16

Jesus was teaching the crowds. He said, "You are the salt of the world. Like salt, you are valuable. If salt was to stop being salty, it wouldn't be salt anymore. If you were to stop being you, we'd lose something important. Don't let the world take away the things that make you who you are."

Jesus kept teaching: "You are the light of the world. Let your light shine! Show the world the goodness of God's love through the way you live and act."
