Seder Meal – Activity

Read the article below to learn about a traditional seder meal.

The Passover seder is a traditional meal shared with friends and family. The seder takes place on the first night of Passover, after sunset. During the meal there are stories, questions, conversation, special foods, and games. Kids participate in the seder too. Families have many ways of celebrating. The Passover seder has 15 different activities, or steps, but it can be divided into five parts.

Lighting the Candles: The holiday begins with lighting candles. The light of the candles stands for hope and freedom.

Reciting the Order: At the seder, there are a lot of activities such as reading, talking, and singing about the Exodus story. Reciting the steps lays out the order like a program at a play or a menu at a meal.

The Story: The longest section of the seder is called Magid, which means “tell.” In this section, the Passover story is told and questions are asked about it.

Time to Eat: After much waiting, it is time to eat the symbolic foods and a big festive meal. Families eat together and remember their freedom.

Celebrating: The Jewish people escaped from Pharaoh, and the story was told. Now, it’s time to sing and celebrate together.

Baking Bread – At-Home Activity

Jesus shared bread with his disciples. Try making this bread recipe to share with your family and friends.

Bread in a Bag

3 cups all-purpose flour, divided
¼ cup sugar
1 package active dry yeast (0.25 oz)
1 cup warm water
3 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
2 teaspoons salt

- Preheat oven to 375°.
- In a resealable bag, place 1 cup flour, sugar, and yeast. Then add warm water.
- Seal bag and push on the bag with your hands to mix.
- Let the dough rest for 10 minutes in a warm place.
- Add 1 cup flour, oil, and salt to the bag. Then seal the bag and mix together.
- Add the remaining cup of flour, and mix until it is all combined.
- Use a spatula to scrape the dough from the bag onto a lightly floured surface. Knead until smooth (about 5 minutes).
- Spray two small loaf pans with cooking spray. Halve the dough, and place in the two pans. Cover with a kitchen towel and let rise 30 minutes.
- Brush the top of the dough with olive oil or melted butter and bake until golden (about 30 minutes).

The Last Supper – Luke 22:14-20

Narrator: It was time for the Passover meal. Jesus joined his friends at a table.

Jesus: I am happy to join you for a meal before I die. I want to eat with you before I go to help make God’s dream come true. I am helping create God’s kingdom.

Narrator: Jesus passed a cup to the disciples.

Jesus: I want to share this food with everyone. This meal connects us to one another and to God.

All: I will share and remember you.

Narrator: After the meal, Jesus ate some bread, said thank you to God for the bread, and then shared it with his friends.

Jesus: I share this bread so you can know I am a part of you.

All: I will share and remember you.

Narrator: After the meal, Jesus drank some juice, said thank you to God for the juice, and passed the cup to his friends.

Jesus: This is a special cup. It is a sign that I love you and will always be with you.

All: I will share and remember you. Amen.

Family Spiritual Practice

Assign the parts of Narrator and Jesus. Everyone else may read the “All” parts. Read the story together.

Wonder: Why is the Last Supper important? Why do we remember it?

Do: Plan a meal to take to someone in need, such as someone who is sick, grieving, or just could use a little joy. If you can’t think of anyone, make a meal and keep it in your freezer for the next time you are able to share.

Pray: Dear God, thank you for hearing us when we share our wants and needs. Amen.
