

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

OBITUARY

Judy Osentowski passed away March 26, 2024, at the age of 79, in McKinney, Texas with her husband Lucien by her side after a courageous 10-year battle with cancer. Judy was born May 21, 1944 in Napoleon, Ohio to parents Ed and Dee Helmke. Judy had three children, Kathi, Nikki and Dave, by her first marriage. She married Lucien on June 17, 1989, which created a blended family of 7 children. Judy was a proud mom and grandparent attending as many sporting events, band competitions, and school programs as possible over the years. She was known for her ability to play her hand at cards, sew a hem, challenge the kids with puzzles and bake an angel food cake for their birthdays. During her later years she was often saying how many days she was living in "an attitude of gratitude" and wanted her children and grandchildren to know just how blessed a life she had.

Judy graduated from Miami University in Ohio and taught elementary school for 30+ years. Later in her career she became fluent in Spanish and taught English as a Second Language classes and upon retirement volunteered as a translator at a local medical clinic.

Judy had many interests. She loved to travel taking trips across the United States and abroad. Some of her favorites were Costa Rica, Hawaii, Thailand, and an African safari but there were many others. She liked to paint and was involved with a local art club and enjoyed learning new techniques while honing her own style and was proud to have her work displayed in art shows and even won a ribbon or two for her efforts. Judy enjoyed gardening and created a beautiful backyard oasis that also fostered her most recent interest in bird watching. She attended the First United Methodist Church of McKinney and was an active member of the Canafax Sunday school group.

Judy is survived by her loving husband Lucien Osentowski; daughter Kathi Tapp and husband Rusty; daughter Nicole Conselman and husband Frank; son Dave Harter and wife Whitney; stepdaughter Theresa Frauendorfer; stepson Tim Smith and wife Margaret; stepdaughter Jodi Smith; stepdaughter Michele Osentowski and husband Raj; maternal grandchildren Charley, Lane, Maddy, Jack, Lauren, Austin, and Blake; paternal grandchildren Derick, Paige, Alyssa, Chereice, Angel, and Ray; as well as 10 great grandchildren plus 1 on the way; and many more loving extended family members. She was preceded in death by her parents Ed and Dee Helmke and her brother Bill Helmke.
