OBITUARY

Frances Ann Brazeal Leflar, age 72, of Lago Vista, Texas, passed away peacefully on September 10, 2025, in the comfort of her home. She was born on August 8, 1953, at Collin Memorial Hospital in McKinney, Texas to Willie Robert Brazeal and Zora Beatrice Johnson.

Fran is survived by her husband, Richard Kirk Leflar, Jr.; her children, Micah Cooke and his wife, Jenny Cooke of Lucas, Texas, and Lisa Weaver and her husband, Gary Weaver of Austin, Texas; grandchildren, William Cooke, Kaley Ivy, Eddie Weaver, and Jake Weaver; and great-grandchild, Kolten Cooke. She is also survived by her sister, Linda James and her husband, Dan James of Whitewright, Texas; brother-in-law, Bobby Leflar and his wife, Heather Leflar of Houston, Texas; and sister-in-law, Beverly Rohret of Quinlan, Texas; as well as numerous beloved nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews.

Fran fiercely loved her family and talked about her grandkids to anyone who would listen. She loved every animal and wanted to save them all. If you had a pet, she probably liked them more than you, no offense. Fran was also famous for her southern cooking and the warmth she brought to every gathering. Don't worry; her secrets have been passed down.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Willie Robert Brazeal and Zora Beatrice Johnson.

We want to thank Blue Water Home Care and Hospice for their care, especially Megan and Lee, the best caregivers you could ask for.

Interment will be held at Ridgeview Memorial Park following the service.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to your local animal shelter.
